Independent Auditor's Report

To the Trustees Combustion Engineering 524(g) Asbestos PI Trust Southfield, Michigan

Opinion

We have audited the special-purpose financial statements of Combustion Engineering 524(g) Asbestos PI Trust (the "Trust") which comprise the special-purpose statement of assets, liabilities and net claimants' equity as of December 31, 2024, and the related special-purpose statements of changes in net claimants' equity and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the special-purpose financial statements (collectively, the "Financial Statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying Financial Statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net claimants' equity of the Trust as of December 31, 2024, and the changes in net claimants' equity and its cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with the basis of accounting described in Note 2 to the Financial Statements.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAS"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Special-Purpose Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Trust and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Emphasis of Matter - Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2 of the Financial Statements which describes the basis of accounting. The Financial Statements are prepared on a special-purpose basis of accounting which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The special-purpose basis of accounting has been adopted by the Trustees to communicate the amount of net claimants' equity presently available to fund current and future claims. As a result, the Financial Statements may not be suitable for another purpose. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Other Matter - Prior Year Financial Statements

The Financial Statements of the Trust for the year ended December 31, 2023, were audited by another auditor whose report dated April 22, 2024, included an emphasis of matter paragraph indicating that the Trust's Financial Statements were prepared on the special-purpose basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting used to communicate the amount of net claimants' equity presently available to fund current and future claims, and expressed an unmodified opinion on those statements.

Responsibilities of Management for the Special-Purpose Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the Financial Statements in accordance with the special-purpose basis of accounting; this includes determining that the special-purpose basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the Financial Statements in these circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the Financial Statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Special-Purpose Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the Financial Statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the Financial Statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the Financial Statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Other Matter - Restriction of Use

Combustion Engineering 524(g) Asbestos PI Trust

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2024 and 2023

Note 1 - Description of the Trust

The Combustion Engineering 524(g) Asbestos PI Trust (the "Trust"), organized pursuant to the laws of the State of Delaware, was established pursuant to Combustion Engineering, Inc.'s ("CE") plan of reorganization, as modified through October 7, 2005 (the "Plan") and became effective on April 20, 2006. The Trust is a Qualified Settlement Fund" ("QSF") pursuant to the meaning of Section 1.468B-1 et seq. to the Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 468B of the Internal Revenue Code ("Code"). The Trust was formed to assume all Asbestos PI Trust Claims (whether now existing or arising at any time hereafter) and to use the Trust assets to pay holders of claims in accordance with the Asbestos PI Trust Agreement. The Trust's funding is dedicated solely to the settlement of asbestos personal injury claims and the related costs thereto, as defined in the Plan. The Trust's principal office is in Wilmington, Delaware and its administrative office is located in Southfield, Michigan. Defined terms have the meanings assigned to them in the Plan.

A Plan Reserve Blocked Account (the "Account") was established by the Trust, Combustion Engineering, Inc., ABB Inc. and ABB Holding Inc. ("ABB"). The account was funded to pay certain administrative expenses and certain unsecured creditors allowed by the Plan. To the extent that the funds remain in the Account after the payment of these allowed expenses, the funds become the property of the Trust. In July 2023, the Account had a balance of approximately $9.1 million and released proceeds of approximately $8.6 million to the Trust. If no further claims are submitted for payment from the Account within two years of July 2023, the remaining $500,000 will be released to the Trust.

The Trust was initially funded with ABB stock, an ABB promissory note, a CE contribution agreement, a CE convertible secured note, and insurance settlement rights. The Trust has divested itself of all ABB holdings.

Note 2 - Significant accounting policies

Basis of presentation

The Trust's financial statements ("Financial Statements") are prepared using special-purpose accounting methods adopted by the Trust and the Trustees, which differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). The special-purpose accounting methods were adopted in order to communicate to the beneficiaries of the Trust the net assets available for payment of claims and the related operating expenses of the Trust. Since the accompanying Financial Statements and transactions are not based upon GAAP, accounting treatment by other parties for these same transactions may differ as to timing and amount. The special-purpose accounting methods include the following:

- i. Investments are recorded at fair value. All interest and dividend income, net of investment expenses, are included in investment income in the accompanying special- purpose statements of changes in net claimants' equity. Realized and unrealized gains and losses on investment securities are recorded as additions or deductions in the special- purpose statements of changes in net claimants' equity.
- ii. Amortization and accretion of bond premiums or discounts is included in investment income.
- iii. Future fixed liabilities under contractual obligations and other agreements entered into by the Trust are recorded as deductions in the same period that such contractual obligations or agreements are signed. Under GAAP, liabilities and contractual obligations are recorded over the period that is benefited by the underlying contract or agreement.

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2024 and 2023

- iv. The distributions of personal injury claims are treated as a direct reduction to net claimants' equity in the period in which the settled claims are approved for payment and not shown separately from direct operating costs. A settled claim is a claim that has been accepted by the claimant with an executed release submitted to the Trust and approved by the Trustees. An unpaid settled claim is a claim that cannot be paid due to annual cap limitations or has been authorized for payment by the Trustees but not yet paid. The liability for unpaid claims that is a result of annual cap limitations is recorded when settled. This liability is the product of the liquidated value of the unpaid claims times the Payment Percentage in effect at year-end. The actual amount paid to an unpaid claimant may be more or less depending on the Payment Percentage in effect at the time of payment. Under GAAP, a liability would be recorded for an estimate of the amount to be paid for claims that have been incurred but not yet reported, and for those claims that have been submitted but not yet approved for payment by the Trust.
- v. Payments for services to be received over an extended period in the future are expensed as paid because these amounts are no longer available for the payment of claims. Under GAAP, an asset would be recorded and amortized over the period in which the related benefits are received.
- vi. Income tax expense is estimated and recorded as incurred in the period in which certain income and expense items affect current federal income taxes payable. Under GAAP, the provision for income taxes is recorded based upon income reported for special-purpose financial statement purposes, and federal income taxes both currently payable and changes in deferred taxes due to differences between financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities. Under GAAP, deferred taxes include a provision for taxes attributable to changes in unrealized gains and losses on investments. Finally, under GAAP, the Trust would be required to estimate the potential outcome of any uncertain tax positions.

Use of estimates

The preparation of the Financial Statements requires the Trustees and management of the Trust to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of certain assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the Financial Statements, as well as the reported changes in net claimants' equity during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates and such differences could have a material effect on net claimants' equity.

Cash equivalents

The Trust considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Investments

Investments are stated at fair value. See Note 4. Changes in unrealized gains and losses recorded as increase or decreases to net claimants' equity. Realized gains and losses on sales are determined using the specific identification method. The Trust records transactions on a trade-date basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Investment income is recognized when earned. Any unearned interest and dividend income are recorded as accrued interest and dividends receivable.

Accrued claims

Accrued claims consist of certain claims that are settled but unpaid at year-end. A settled claim is a claim that has been accepted by the claimant with an executed release submitted to the Trust and approved by the Trustees. An unpaid settled claim is a claim that cannot be paid due to annual cap limitations or has been authorized by the Trustees but not yet paid. The liability for unpaid claims that is a result of annual cap limitations is recorded when settled. This liability is the product of the liquidated value of the unpaid claims times the Payment Percentage in effect at year-end. The actual amount paid to an unpaid claimant may be more or less depending on the Payment Percentage in effect at the time of payment.

The ultimate number of claims to be filed and the liability for all such claims are not determinable at this time. The net claimants' equity at December 31, 2024 and 2023 represents funding available for all future claims. No fixed liability has been established for these future claims.

Accrued expenses and accounts payable

Accrued expenses and accounts payable consist of outstanding invoices associated with managing the Trust.

Unsettled securities

Unsettled securities receivable consist of amounts due to the Trust for securities sold before year end. Unsettled securities payable consists of amounts owed for securities acquired before year end.

Operating expenses

Operating expenses of the Trust are recorded as deductions on the special-purpose statements of changes in net claimants' equity in the period in which the invoices are accrued.

Income taxes

The Trust is classified as a QSF pursuant to the Code in the United States of America federal jurisdiction. As a result, the Trust is subject to federal income taxes based on modified gross income, as defined by the Code. In the opinion of the Trustees and advisors, the Trust is not subject to state income taxes and, therefore, the Financial Statements do not include any provision or liability for state income taxes. The funding received at the inception of the Trust as well as any subsequent funding received from insurers does not represent taxable income to the Trust. In addition, payments to claimants do not represent tax deductions of the Trust. The Trust reports tax-related interest and penalties as a component of income tax expense.

The Trust records income tax expense (or benefit) associated with amounts payable (or receivable) under current federal income taxes and does not record a provision for (or benefit from) deferred taxes. Accordingly, there is no provision for deferred taxes associated with changes in cumulative unrealized gains and losses on investments. The income taxes associated with gains on investments will be recorded in the Trust's Financial Statements when the net gains are realized (i.e. the securities are sold) and the taxes become currently payable. In addition, there is no provision for deferred taxes associated with any future benefit from the potential use of net operating or capital loss carryforwards to reduce taxable income in future years.

The Trust's federal income tax returns are generally subject to income tax examination by the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") for a period of 3 years from the date the tax returns are filed. The Trust is generally no longer subject to income tax examinations by the IRS for the years ended December 31, 2019 and prior.

Concentrations of credit risk

The Trust's assets that are exposed to credit risk consists of cash and cash equivalents, investment securities, and accrued interest and dividends receivables. Cash and cash equivalents are maintained at financial institutions and, at times, balances may exceed federally insured limits. The Trust has not experienced losses related to these balances.

The Trust invests in a professionally managed investment portfolio that contains common shares of publicly traded companies, corporate and government obligations, and alternative investments. Such investments are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investments, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment will occur in the near term and such changes could materially affect the Trust's portfolio and the amounts reported in the Financial Statements.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts on the special-purpose statement of changes in net claimants' equity have been reclassified for consistency with current year presentation. These reclassifications had no effect on the prior year reported net claimants' equity.

Subsequent events

The Trust has evaluated events and transactions subsequent to the date of the Financial Statements for matters requiring recognition or disclosure in the Financial Statements. The accompanying Financial Statements consider events through April 21, 2025, the date which the Financial Statements were available to be issued.

Note 4 - Fair Value Measurements

The Trust's investments are recorded at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability between market participants in an orderly transaction on the measurement date. The market in which the reporting entity would sell the asset or transfer the liability with the greatest volume and level of activity for the asset or liability is known as the principal market. When no principal market exists, the most advantageous market is used. This is the market in which the reporting entity would sell the asset or transfer the liability with the price that maximizes the amount that would be received or minimizes the amount that would be paid. Fair value is based on assumptions market participants would make in pricing the asset or liability. Generally, fair value is based on observable quoted market prices or derived from observable market data when such market prices or data are available. When such prices or inputs are not available, the Trust would use valuation models.

The Trust's assets recorded at fair value on a recurring basis are categorized based on the priority of the inputs used to measure fair value. The inputs used in measuring fair value are categorized into three levels, as follows:

- Level 1 Inputs that are based upon quoted prices for identical instruments traded in active markets.
- Level 2 Inputs that are based upon quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar investments in markets that are not active, or models based on valuation techniques for which all significant assumptions are observable in the market, or can be corroborated by, observable market data for substantially the full term of the investment.
- Level 3 Inputs that are generally unobservable and typically reflect management's estimates of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. The fair values are therefore determined using model-based techniques that include option pricing models, discounted cash flow models, and similar techniques.

The Trust does not have any Level 3 investments. For the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, there were no transfers from Level 3 investments.

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2024 and 2023

The following section describes the valuation methodologies the Trust uses to measure its financial assets at fair value:

Equities: Investments are valued at the closing price reported on the active market in which the individual securities are traded. These values are provided by the Trust's investment custodian.

Bonds: Valued using the documented trade price if trading in an active market. Otherwise, valued using a metrics system provided by the pricing vendors.
